

Canadian Certified Counsellor (CCC) Reference Form

References are not confidential; they must be sent directly by the referee, and may be accessed by the applicant upon official request, with or without referee's consent, or otherwise by an application from the applicant under The Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA). Privacy Act and Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act. In the case where a poor reference is a main or contributing factor to an outcome other than full approval for the C.C.C. designation, the Registrar may share information contained in a reference's evaluation of the applicant.

References must be provided by graduate-level counsellors, supervisors or counsellor educators who can speak to the applicant's counselling competencies within the last ten years. The referee must be in a non-compliant relationship with the applicant. All applicants must provide two reference forms with their application, one of which must be from a qualified clinical supervisor (for both Pathway One and Pathway Two applicants).
